PRESBYTERIANS IN ANNUAL GENERAL ASSEMBLY TODAY

Southern Church Meets in West Virginia and Cumberland at Dickson.

Latter is Celebrating Centennial of Church.

METHODISTS ABOUT THROUGH.

Lewisburg, W. Va., May 19.—In an old stone church erected here in 1796 by "a few believers in God," the cornerstones of the Presbyterian church convened today in its fiftieth general assembly.

More than 200 commissioners were present when Dr. W. E. Boggs, of Atlanta, Ga., the moderator for the last assembly, called the organization to order.

It was a historic gavel he wielded. It was made from a walnut tree that grew on the farm of Dr. John McElpersey, for 62 years pastor of the church in which the assembly was meeting. The early hours of the service were consumed by addresses of welcome and responses and the annual sermon by Dr. Boggs.

His subject was the Bible. First he spoke of the source of the Bible's power he said it rested in its relation to God. Next he emphasized the riches of the Bible in its power to supply all the needs of men.

He said it was not from the Greeks, "with Apollon's silver lute and the rich gifts of the nine muses; nor from the Roman with the all conquering spear," and stabling sword so often buried to its hilt in the quivering bosoms of nations who opposed them in defense of their altar and high throne. But from the hated and despised Jew "that we have our earliest duty and our sweetest hopes of the life beyond with God." Finally he replied to the newest infidelity and spoke of Christ as the guardian and defender of the Bible.

The opening sermon of Dr. Boggs occupied nearly an hour and one half, necessitating postponement of election of a moderator until after 3 o'clock this afternoon. Dr. J. W. Buchanan, of Chattanooga, Tenn., will probably be elected.

The commissioners from the Paducah Presbytery selected to attend at the last meeting were J. H. McCullough, of Henderson, the principal, and the Rev. C. N. Wharton, of Morganfield, the alternate. From the elders were appointed C. H. Skinner, of Morganfield, principal, and James H. Letcher, M. D., of Henderson, the alternate. The Rev. H. W. Burwell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, is not attending.

Cumberland Assembly.

Dickson, Tenn., May 20.—The eightieth general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church convened here in a large tent which has a seating capacity of 3,000. The tent was completely filled at the time the convention was called to order by Stated Clerk Goodnight, Rev. J. T. Barber, moderator of Bowling Green, Ky., preached the opening sermon in which he dealt extensively with the history of the church from its inception, its growth and present status. The sermon was in the nature of a centenary address. The Cumberland Presbyterian church was organized in this county, February 4, 1810. From that little beginning the church has grown to its present enormous proportions, covering practically thirty-five states. Eighteen of these states are represented in this convention. Among the delegates are four full blooded Indians representing the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations.

Methodist Conference.

Ashville, N. C., May 20.—For the first time in the history of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, a woman was allowed to address the general conference. By unanimous consent of the conference Miss Belle H. Bennett, president of the Woman's Home Mission society, was invited to address the delegates on the subject, which has been considered one of the most vital questions before the conference, the right of women to sit in the councils of the church and for equal rights with the laity. For some time it was difficult to judge which way the conference would vote, but after many speeches the members voted to adopt the report of the majority of the committee, which denied the women the right asked for.

Bishops Ordained.

The most impressive service of the general conference was the ordination of seven bishops in the Central

Most Magnificent Funeral Ever Witnessed Was That of Late King Edward Today—Brilliant Scenes

Uniforms of Kings, Medieval Costumes, Military in Gorgeous Array, Myriads of Flowers.

London, May 20.—(By United Press)—The body of Edward VII., the foremost among rulers of the earth, was laid to rest today at St. George's chapel, Windsor, where seven British kings are buried. It was the most imposing funeral the world has ever seen. Nine ruling monarchs and a host of lesser royalty and representatives of other great powers are participating in the obsequies.

The procession left Westminster at 9:50. Despite the presence of 35,000 soldiers and thousands of police, the crowds were so dense that numerous panics were narrowly averted. It is estimated that 2,500,000 persons saw the procession. Many fainted from the heat and night vigil. The weather is warm and bright.

Simultaneous with the starting of the procession, every railway train, street car and factory in Great Britain stopped for 15 minutes, and every bell in London tolled.

The chief interest centered in the nine kings. George, wearing a general's uniform, came first, with the kaiser immediately behind in the uniform of a British field marshal. The other kings: George of Greece, Albert of Belgium, Alfonso of Spain, Manuel of Portugal, Frederick of Denmark, Haakon of Norway, and Ferdinand of Bulgaria, wore resplendent uniforms with crests.

The royal mourners were alone a few minutes with the body before the start.

It took two hours and seven minutes for the procession to cover the three miles to the station. Roosevelt, clad in conventional black, rode with Pichon, of France, and Sana Khan, of Persia.

Roosevelts Honored.

As a mark of courtesy to Mrs. Roosevelt and Ethel were admitted to St. George's chapel with Ambassador Reid. Among the many touching incidents that marked the funeral none affected the crowds more than the act of Alexandra, the queen mother. Before entering the carriage she stopped and stroked the mane of the king's favorite charger, and patted the terrier of which Edward was very fond. A giant highlander led the dog in the procession ahead of the carriages.

A moment of excitement occurred at the start of the procession. The horse ridden by the Duke of Connaught, a brother of Edward, frightened and reared violently. The duke was nearly thrown.

At Paddington station the coffin was quickly transferred to the train and the run to Windsor was made in half an hour. Members of the cabinet, with the exception of John Burns, went to Paddington in automobiles, not participating in the parade.

As the Duke of Norfolk rode down the platform all rose to their feet and uncovered. Windsor station presented a beautiful spectacle. It was decorated throughout with choicest flowers from the royal conservatory.

Eades Divorce Case Heard on Motions

Arguments in the demurrer filed by the defendant in the divorce suit of Mrs. Woodson Eades against her husband, Nathan William Eades, were heard in circuit court this morning by Circuit Judge William M. Reed. Mr. Eades filed a demurrer to the petition on the grounds that the McCracken circuit court does not have jurisdiction, because Mrs. Eades is a non-resident. Attorneys for Mrs. Eades announced that if Judge Reed decided he did not have jurisdiction to try the divorce case when suit was filed, a second suit will be filed, as Mrs. Eades has now resided in Paducah a sufficient length of time to establish her residence beyond question.

The motion filed by Mrs. Eades' attorneys for an allowance of $100 a month for the maintenance of herself and two children, pending the litigation, was taken up. Mrs. Eades testified that it would require $100 a month to provide for herself and two girls, five and eight years old.

NO MORE BODIES UNDER SALTILLO, IT IS BELIEVED

Body of Clerk Col. Baker Comes to Surface Far Down Stream.

Mr. Cook Husbands Returns to Paducah.

HOODOO UPON PELL FAMILY.

Fully satisfied that none of the missing bodies are in the wreck of the sunken steamer, City of Saltillo, Mr. Cook Husbands, uncle of Fowler Post, third clerk, one of the uncovered victims, returned from St. Louis this morning, after being at Glen Park, the scene of the disaster, for one week. Mr. Husbands was provoked over the slowness of the underwriters in clearing the wreckage and finally took the matter in his own hands and dynamited the boat.

"I see that the papers said Col. Baker's body was found in the wreck," said Mr. Husbands today. "That was a mistake. The body came to the surface and was floating down the Mississippi near St. Genevieve, Mo., 35 miles below the wreck, when it was caught by Mr. A. M. Patterson and his son in a gasoline launch."

Mr. Husbands said every mile of the river between the wreck and Memphis is being patrolled by motor craft and if any of the bodies rise to the surface they will be seen. He said he went to the wreck for the purpose of finding out whether there were any bodies there and being convinced that there are none, returned home. The packet company first secured a diver and then the insurance underwriters employed them. No progress being made by the underwriters, Mr. Husbands and others had the boat dynamited. All of the bodies are evidently far from the scene and the river will be watched closely for them. Rewards have been offered for all of them.

Doom of Pell Family.

St. Louis, May 20.—The wreck of the Saltillo and the filing yesterday of charges of negligence and inattention to duty against her pilot, Edwin Pell, by the United States steam vessel inspectors, recalled to old rivermen the warning given to his five sons by Pell's grandfather, a famous river captain. On his deathbed he asked his five sons to stay away from the river, but all five became pilots. Pell's father, James Pell, was one of the pilots on the Robert E. Lee in her celebrated race with the Natchez from St. Louis to New Orleans.

The ill luck old Captain Pell foresaw skipped one generation, old rivermen say, but has pursued the second. Edwin Pell's brother, James Pell, Jr., was pilot on the steamer Missouri when she went aground on the rocks at Wolf Creek Landing on the Ohio river in April, 1895, and sank, drowning three. The accident was almost identical with the wreck of the Saltillo.

The charges against Pilot Pell call for his appearance for trial before Inspectors Gordon and MacDonald at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, May 28. Copies of the findings were forwarded to Washington.

The investigation into the sinking of the Saltillo so far by the inspectors has been in the nature of a grand jury investigation to fix the responsibility for the wreck.

The inspectors arrived at the conclusion that Pell was guilty of reckless navigation and he will be tried. All the witnesses hitherto examined, and probably others, will be subpoenaed. Pell may call witnesses in his defense.

The inspectors can only suspend or revoke his license as a pilot.

The City of Savannah, in command of Capt. P. F. Hall, which will replace the Saltillo in the St. Louis to Waterloo (Ala.) trade, arrived at St. Louis yesterday morning with a barge loaded with freight recovered from the wreck. Capt. Harry Crane of the Saltillo and his crew returned from Glen Park on the Savannah. Captain Crane and the other members of the crew of the Saltillo who survived the wreck will man the Savannah, with the exception of Pell.

Miss Jo Miller Returns.

Miss Jo Miller will return this evening from Uniontown, where she has been a student at St. Vincent's academy, and will spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Miller, 416 South Sixth street. Miss Rosalie Petter, who is also a student at St. Vincent's academy, is expected to return and will spend the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Petter, of South Fifth street.

Victim of Pool Road Murder Case May be Wit Wilkins, Lynn Grove, Calloway County; Has Disappeared

His Father May Go to New Decatur, Ala., to Disinter Body Mrs. Lum Thompson Buried as Her Son.

Wit Wilkins, an auburn haired youth, 18 years old, of Lynn Grove, Calloway county, left home the night of March 28, and has not been heard from since. His father will go to New Decatur, Ala., and disinter the body of the Pool road murder, buried there as Luther Thompson.

Is the name of the unidentified young man found murdered near the Pool road on April 10 Wit Wilkins, of Lynn Grove, Calloway county?

Since March 28 nothing has been heard from young Wilkins and his father, S. A. Wilkins, believes strongly that it is his son who was murdered. The description of the dead boy almost convinces Mr. Wilkins that the body is that of his son, and if no further word is heard in the next few days he will go to New Decatur, Ala., and have the body buried there by Mrs. Lum Thompson exhumed for the purpose of identification.

Wit Wilkins was 18 years old, and was attending school in Murray. For some unknown reason young Wilkins sent an express wagon to the residence of W. A. Chambers on March 28, and had his trunk removed to the station. Wilkins boarded a Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis train that night and neither his destination nor reason for leaving have ever been disclosed.

At the time of the identification of the body as that of "Red" Thompson, Mr. Wilkins felt convinced that it was his son. He boarded the train and came to Paducah. By a curious coincidence he boarded the same train that brought Mrs. Lum Thompson to Paducah, and en route to the city they talked about the dead boy. At the station Mrs. Thompson was met and hurried to the morgue, leaving Thompson out of it. After the body was identified by Mrs. Thompson as that of her son, Wilkins visited the morgue, where the body was held, but it had been placed in a casket preparatory to shipment and he did not view the body. He was not urgent then, as it had been identified as that of another youth.

Since Mrs. Thompson's son has appeared alive, and no word has come from his boy, Mr. Wilkins begins to believe the murdered youth is his son.

Wit Wilkins had always resided in Calloway county, and was a young man with a good reputation. He worked on his father's farm during the summer, and was attending school in Murray during the winter. Several citizens from Marshall county viewed the body the day after the murder and said they were confident that they had seen the dead boy, but could not recall his name.

The Murdered Youth.

The description of the murdered youth is: Height five feet six inches; weight, about 125 pounds; hair, dark red, slightly curly; eyes, brown; teeth, small and sound; face, ruddy and thickly freckled; nose, broad and slightly turned up; marks, scars of burn on top of left wrist; two scars on left knee; scar on outer bone of left ankle; scar on side under right armpit; scar one inch long on fourth finger of left hand; unnoticeable circular scar on right cheek.

The shoes found several feet from the body were black, button, of the W. L. Douglas make and apparently size No. 8. The underclothing was heavy and pale yellow and he wore a top shirt of khaki material with the brand of "Ferguson & McKinney" on the inside neck band. He wore a sort of green changeable silk four-in-hand tie and a book of cigarette papers was found in the shirt pocket. A pair of dark green trousers with a small stripe were found not far away.

Capt. Mason Critical

Captain J. E. Mason, the veteran river pilot and steamboatman, is in a critical condition at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Glynn, 1618 South Sixth street. His death is expected at any time. Captain Mason has been seriously ill for several months.

HENDERSON AND MARION, ILL., MAY COME IN LEAGUE

Kentucky Town Raises Mazuma and Marion Will Have No Trouble

Season Will Start Thursday as Arranged.

OTHERS JOIN ABOUT JUNE 15.

After all the Kitty league may be composed of six clubs after June 15, according to the news received today from President C. C. Gosnell by the local baseball boosters. Henderson has raised the necessary money to secure the berth, and steps will be taken to get Marion, Ill., in line. This was the frame-up of the league last Sunday when Henderson disappointed the officials by announcing that it was impossible to raise the money.

This morning Treasurer W. E. Cochran received a special delivery letter from President Gosnell, and a conference was held over the long distance telephone. Mr. Gosnell said Henderson had notified him that the money was on hand. Owing to the fact that the four club schedule has been adopted, and the season is due to open in a week it was decided to begin the season with four clubs. If Henderson posts the guaranty a meeting will be held at Marion next week with the baseball enthusiasts. It is proposed to admit Henderson and Marion June 15, and finish the season with six teams. This would give Henderson and Marion plenty of time to secure players and arrange their parks.

The news that Henderson had raised the money will please the local fans, who desire a six league club if possible. Marion will have no trouble in raising the necessary funds for a team and will be the best drawing city in the league.

The sale of tickets to the opening game is progressing fairly, but the fans are not responding as readily as they should. The season will open next Thursday, and the local club expects at least 1,000 tickets at $1 each.

Wants Fast Sacker.

Manager Harry Cooper is after a fast first-sacker for the local baseball league team. He has written several letters to first base players, and has signed a player named Payne for a tryout. On the initial corner it is expected to secure a good man.

Marshal Brings in Two.

Elwood Neal, deputy United States marshal, returned from Mayfield at 11:20 o'clock this morning with two alleged bootleggers, who will be given an examining trial before United States Commissioner W. A. Gardner this afternoon. They are Zack Harris, of Mayfield, and L. Oliver, of Sedalia, both colored.

MAN FROM PHILIPPINES TAKES COLEMAN'S PLACE.

Mr. E. J. Coleman has resigned his position as assistant treasurer of the Paducah Traction company to accept a position in Cleveland. He will leave the city June 1 to become assistant credit man with the Sherman-Williams Paint company. Mr. Coleman came to Paducah about six months ago from Minneapolis, where he was in the employ of the Stone & Webster company, and since residing in the city has made many friends, who will regret to see him leave. Mr. H. A. Arthur, of Ponce, of the Philippine Islands, will succeed him. He is expected to arrive in the city next week to assume his duties. Mr. Arthur has held a similar position with the Ponce Street Railway company.

Gained Fifteen Pounds

"Am in better condition physically than I have been for years. My stomach, kidneys and liver are in fine shape," says Mr. William A. Burgess.

"While serving in the U. S. Army, 1898 to 1901, I contracted stomach and kidney trouble, from which I have suffered ever since, and for which I receive a pension. I tried many remedies, but none gave any noteworthy effect. About three months ago I began using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a medicine. I have used three bottles and have gained fifteen pounds since I began using it. I am still using it, and I do not think there is any medicine made that is equal to it. My stomach, liver and kidneys are in better order than they have been for years, and if these three organs of the body are kept in order one will have few doctor bills. I cheerfully recommend Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a tonic, a stimulant and renovator of the whole system."—WILLIAM A. BURGESS, P. O. box 575, Danville, Ill.

News of Theatres

A special performance for the children will be given tomorrow afternoon at Wallace park for the benefit of the children. The free acts will begin at 3 o'clock, and the youngsters are promised a fine exhibition. Larkin's trained ponies are a feature, and their antics will please the children.

Another strong vaudeville bill is offered at the Kentucky theater for the last of the week, and two large audiences saw the performance last night. Victorine with the two Zolar sisters are the headliners. They carry their own scenic effects, and feature the "Lazy Moon." Eli Quigley in a black face stunt, and his eccentric dancing proved a pleasing act.

SIXTH GRADE

CAPTURES HONORS IN MCKINLEY SCHOOL CONTEST.

Ray Saltzgriver Leads in Reciting Poems—Clever Program Is Presented.

The Sixth grade of the McKinley school captured the honors yesterday afternoon in the contest with the Fifth grade of the school. The contest was held between the pupils of the two grades reciting poems that are distributed each month as a part of the English course. All the contestants did well, and after a close decision the judges decided that Ray Saltzgriver, of the Sixth grade, was entitled to first individual honor, while Earl Lofton, of the Fifth grade, was awarded second honor. The judges were: Miss Blanche Mooney, Miss Emma Mayer and Superintendent J. A. Carnegie.

Opening the contest three songs, "Welcome, Sweet Spring," "Dreams" and "Kentucky School," a song composed by J. G. Crabbe, formerly state school superintendent. The poems and contestants were:

"Dandelions"—Eunice Renfro and Marie Brain.

"Find a Way to Make It"—Glenn Faulks and Vera Bräme.

"The Southwind and the Sun"—Bertie Herring.

HOW TO CURE ECZEMA, PIMPLES AND DANDRUFF.

We desire to say that when we took the agency for ZEMO, we were convinced that it was a valuable remedy for Eczema, pimples, and dandruff. Yet, we must frankly admit that Zemo has far exceeded our expectations as a treatment for skin diseases. We are pleased to state that we shall continue the agency as ZEMO has given splendid results wherever recommended. Our customers like ZEMO too, because it is a clean vegetable liquid for external use.

ZEMO effects its cures by drawing to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the disease, leaving the skin clear and healthy. It does not soil the clothing or linen and can be used freely on infants.

With every purchase, we give a booklet on skin diseases explaining in simple words how any person can be cured at home of any form of skin or scalp diseases by this clean, scientific remedy.—W. J. Gilbert, Druggist.

Arson and counterfeiting are on the increase, although crime as a whole is declining.

FLAG DAY

GOV. WILLSON NAMES JUNE 14 IN PROCLAMATION.

Calls Upon All Citizens of Kentucky To Display the Stars and Stripes.

Frankfort, Ky., May 20.—(Special)—Governor Willson this afternoon issued a Flag day proclamation, calling attention to the anniversary of the birth of the flag and suggesting that everybody show allegiance to the flag on that and all days. The proclamation is as follows:

"To the People of Kentucky: The American Flag association organized to perpetuate the love of our people for the flag and the earnest, patriotic spirit which that love strengthens, sends its reminder that Tuesday, June 14, 1910, will be the one hundred and thirty-third anniversary of the adoption of the stars and stripes as the flag of the United States.

"I call upon all of our people to join in cherishing the love of the flag on June 14. I order that the flag be displayed on all state buildings and invite the celebration of the day. I call upon the mayors of our cities to recognize this anniversary and order flags to be displayed upon the municipal buildings of their cities, and by proclamation invite their fellow-citizens to do the same upon their private buildings.

"I appeal to the newspapers to cherish the interest of our people in this anniversary of the birth of the flag by local articles upon the subject of the flag and appeals to the people to display the colors on Flag day.

"I call upon all school officers and teachers to arrange patriotic exercises appropriate to the day. I appeal to all patriotic societies throughout the state and to all state officers to stir the public heart by their exercises upon this day, and I call upon all citizens to join in the public recognition of the birthday of our flag, and I call upon all to herald the coming and celebration of Flag day, June 14, 1910, and to fling the stars and stripes to the breeze everywhere throughout all the state, from every church, school and building, public and private, and from every home throughout the entire commonwealth.

"It will be a beautiful tribute to the pupils in every school to salute the flag and pledge allegiance to the flag and the republic for which it stands, and I call upon every good Kentucky American to always salute the flag whenever it meets his eye, to take off his hat and rest it over his heart. We cannot too often be reminded nor too often remind each other of what that flag stands for."

AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON,
Governor of Kentucky.

POLICE BUGGY

BEING EQUIPPED FOR SERVICE OF ROUNDSMAN.

Big Lights Will Aid Driver and Light Up the Dark Places.

A runabout for general police duty in the day and night is being prepared out of one of the old buggies formerly used at the city lighting plant and will be ready next week.

The Hardy Buggy company is repairing the rig and two automobile lights have been purchased by Chief of Police Singery to be placed on either side of the dashboard. The lights will serve two purposes, being used on the buggy and by the police in entering dark houses when necessary.

"Gus," one of the fire department horses, will be driven to the rig and Sergeant Lige Cross will use it at night in making his rounds. In the day the buggy will serve Chief Singery and other officials.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

If You Have It, Read This Letter. MI-O-NA is Guaranteed.

"I was taken last August with a severe stomach trouble. The doctor said it was nervous dyspepsia. I took his treatment four weeks, but did not feel any better. I took everything I heard of. The first day of December, 1908, I got a box of MI-O-NA. I took them that afternoon and the next day and haven't had one bit of pain in my stomach since the 2nd of December. I took five boxes. Feel well now, and sleep good.—Mrs. M. E. Maxfield, R. F. D. 2, Avoca, N. Y.

MI-O-NA is surely the best prescription for indigestion ever written. It relieves after dinner distress, belching of gas, foul breath, heartburn, etc., in five minutes. It is guaranteed to permanently cure indigestion, acute or chronic, or any disease of the stomach or money-back.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets are sold by Gilbert's drug store and leading druggists everywhere at 50 cents a box.

lake front lands, and considered by the plaintiffs the most important ever entered into by this municipality, was begun today in the filing of six suits by the city against occupants of the land. The land involved was formed by accretions and filling in operations from Sixteenth Fifty-sixth streets, a distance of four and one-half miles. At places the strip is 500 feet in width. The greater part of the land is claimed by the Illinois Central Railroad company, whose right of way runs through it, but there are five other holders against whom suits also have been filed. The rapidly with which accretions from the lake made land is shown in the case of the late Jas. Morgan, who purchased three and six-tenths acres about forty years ago. He built piers into the lake and by 1893 was able not only to sell $50 worth of said a day from that caught by his piers, but to furnish a site for the Chicago Beach hotel.

This Free Remedy Helps Sickly Babies

Babies and children suffer mostly from the stomach. There is something wrong with the milk or with the eggs or with the minor articles of food, for it doesn't take much to disturb a child's stomach. One thing the mother can always be sure of and that is that no harm can come from giving a small dose of a mild laxative, for it is sure to be better off for it. You know your own feeling of lightness and ease when that function has been performed, so how much more important is it to the child?

Watch carefully that your child does not become constipated, for if it does not have at least one or two movements of the bowels each day it is constipated. From constipation comes headache, a feeling of oppression, bad breath, nausea, sour stomach, etc. In these troubles you can obtain nothing better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Give it in the small doses prescribed for children and watch the sickly child become healthy and well, full of appetite and energy.

Mothers all over this country have been using this remedy for a quarter of a century and many heads of families like Mrs. C. L. Lynch of Billingsley, Ala., and Mrs. Amanda Black of Laura, O., would not keep house without it. They have long ago discarded tablets, pills, salts and such things for the milder, more gentle and more effective Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which every member of the family, from the youngest to the oldest, can use with safety. It is in the homes of more families today than any other laxative, but if you have never used it Dr. Caldwell urges you to send him your name and address and he will send you a sample bottle free of charge. If its use convinces you that it is the remedy you have been looking for then buy it in the regular way of your druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, just as so many others are doing.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 1537 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Daily Thought.

No man can love evil for evil's sake as he can love goodness for goodness' sake.—Schiller.

We would add that Mr. Kipling seems to have said about all the subject merits.

In spite of the new law, we observe that the Masons and Odd Fellows continue to exemplify the third degree.

And now, somebody, who saves

up the almanacs, reminds us that seventeen year locusts are due this summer.

Spots have been discovered on the sun since the comet was seen around it. Do you suppose that comet had the measles?

Frisco, of course, may celebrate the opening of the Panama canal, if it desires to be unsociable, and not go to New Orleans, where the big show will be held.

How careless it was of the night manager of the express company at

Oil City, Pa., to leave the room for five minutes, just at the time when the thief was prepared to grab the $23,000.

We hear a great deal of dissatisfaction with the comet. It is pretty dull, just going 'round and 'round

the sun all our lives in this humdrum

fashion with never a change to break the monotony of existence.

Bye and by, when we keep clean

all the time, honor our mothers

through life, recognize the nobility of labor on all occasions and are continuously patriotic and thankful

—what will we do for holidays?

Perhaps the comet is modest, not having been in public for 75 years,

and when it saw all those glasses leveled at it—we offer this only as a tentative explanation—it tucked its tail between its legs and ran.

THE LONG SUFFERING PUBLIC.

The Chicago Woman's club scored a victory in suppressing the performance of a nasty play at Cort theater,

after the manager has secured a temporary injunction, restraining the police from interfering. The same play was suppressed in New York. The Chicago judge held that, while the police had no arbitrary

authority to suppress a performance, neither could the management come into court without clean hands to demand the protection of society against the encroachment of his right to run his theater. The judge read the manuscript of the play and said it was dirty and the hands of the manager were dirty.

Like the evils of politics, the evils of the modern theater, reflect on the patience, if not the taste, of the public. Managers declare they give the people what they want. They do not, but the people forbear to indicate their disapproval and patronize vulgar production, rather than exert themselves to demand

what they do want.

It is easier to produce mechanical novelties and sensational variations of old ideas, than to produce artistic results; and it is easier to shock the public into attention by indecent suggestions and vulgar displays, than to attract by real merit. The public is permitting itself to be buncoed and degraded at the same time. The public in taste is not degenerate—

not yet—but the public is too long suffering. How foolish of us to wait to vote against bad men for office, until some popular reformer suggests it, and to stand for filthy drama until a society takes the matter into court. We are but children of a larger growth. Remember what old man Barnum said about us?

A NASTY MESS.

The Louisville Times, while of a disposition to "poke fun" at anything, regardless, cannot be accused of partisan friendship for the national administration, and, therefore, we feel safe in quoting it on the developments of the Ballinger investigation, without comment:

"The Ballinger business is degenerating. It was not an overly savory mess to begin with, and its successive stages of vengeful and vicious criminality have not improved it; but now that it has descended into the arena of dirty polemics, of evasion and prevarication, it is no more than a sorry spectacle in which the original matters in dispute have been completely lost sight of.

"Let us consider for a moment what these were. First, then, was the contention that Mr. Ballinger improperly 'clear-listed' the Cunningham claims in Alaska; that he was himself, directly or indirectly, interested in them; that his selection as secretary of the Interior had been procured by parties who were anxious to rob Alaska undisturbed; that he had been guilty of sweating campaign contributions out of land-grabbing gentry with an uneasy conscience. If that does not include all the counts of the indictment, it does, in any case, summarize them for all practical purposes.

"Has any one of these charges been sustained? have they not, without exception, been discredited? The 'clear-listing' was a transaction, exaggerated as to its details and wholly in order; the secretary was not financially interested; he was especially recommended for his post by Mr. Garfield and others of like caliber, and the campaign episode was such an one as Brother Hitchock would have gloried in.

"And today the angry discussion is wholly foreign to these and kindred matters; it is rather general as to the disingenuousness of the administration than specific as to the secretary's unworthiness. It has so widened as to center round the president, and to attack him over the shoulders of the various members of his cabinet, who, from time to time, become involved. The prosecution of Mr. Ballinger has become a persecution of the executive.

"The curiously perverted code of ethics which moved Kerby to make 'revelations' so soon as he was assured of a mattress to fall upon, is of a piece with much of the wanton disregard for official discipline, not to say decorum, of which Mr. Pinchot gave the first contagious example. It has its origin in a pious assumption that superiors are all d—d rascals and will bear watching; and that no one has a better right to sit in judgment on them than those whom they employ in confidential capacities. It is an exceedingly petty and preposterous condition of mind which is thus exhibited, and it is moreover one that could not exist without encouragement. These Glavises and Kerby posing as martyrs are a lamentable exhibition—and a ludicrous one."

AS THE WEST SEES IT.

The Portland Oregonian, in an editorial reproduced in The Evening Sun yesterday, accurately registers the sentiment of its section on the question of conservation, which, perhaps, is all that is to be expected of the daily newspaper. We have ever contended that Ballinger represents the spirit of the west.

The west wants no conservation; it wants the exploitation of its natural resources, a rush of capital, the development of its territory, the extension of railroads, a growth in population, and the immediate, manifest presence of affluence and wealth, which these things denote. The people of the west can see nothing but a retarding of prosperity by the regulation of these operations.

There is abundance of analogy in the history of the development of every section. When a railroad line proposes to tap a new territory, or any public utility corporation offers its service to a city, the people are ready to lend public credit to the enterprise, and to grant franchises and rights of way with liberal bonuses; and then when the utilities have become commonplace and the first installments of the bonuses fall due, they begin to charge bribery and corruption to the agents of the corporations and the servants of the public.

This we can understand, and it makes the more urgent the necessity for federal supervision of these things. The argument that the western states can protect their resources, as well as the nation can, is fallacious. No state ever yet has protected anything it ever had. Where are the school lands in this section? Where are any of those rights and the natural wealth of which the state became possessed upon its organization? Gone. If the states had been competent to protect and conserve our resources, the question of reforestation now would not be one of such momentous importance, and the national interest in conservation

NEXT MONDAY CLEAN-UP DAY

Next Monday has been designated as clean-up day by the city board of health, and the citizens in every section of the city are urged to clean up their premises. Especially the war will be waged on the house fly and the mosquito. All breeding places for the pests should be eliminated, and the supply will be short this year. They are recognized as the greatest spreaders of disease.

It was intended to inaugurate the clean-up day several weeks ago, but the inclement weather was a hindrance. The board of public works is co-operating with the board of health in the elimination of disease breeding places. The streets have been oiled, and the crude oil has been spread in the low gutters, and a skimming of oil placed on the stagnant ponds near the city. It is intended to wage a final fight upon the citizens who permit stagnant water to remain about their premises.

The bulletin issued by the health department is as follows:

"We desire that a general cleanup of power sites and fuel deposits

would be only casual.

The argument comes with a peculiar irony all its own from Pacific coast states, every one of whose ocean harbors are absolutely owned by the Harriman and Hill railroad systems, and into whose ports not a single free ship can enter to compete with the transcontinental railroad lines without paying tribute to those very lines for the privilege of unloading at their docks.

Oregon—Washington—California—Colorado—Idaho—Wyoming—preserve anything for the public? Those commonwealths are absolutely owned by the interests which are now seeking to control the water power sites; and they cannot compare their condition with that of the eastern states, for the Atlantic cities possess free ports, where Oceania and Europe—yes, and the orient, may deliver their wares at a small port charge, which goes to enrich the cities. When those Pacific ports undertake to compete with the Atlantic and gulf coast cities in this trade, they will find that they have sold their birthright of public docks for a mess of pottage; and when their timbered highlands are decimated, their watersheds ruined, their fuel and ore deposits rifled and all power producing sites monopolized; they, too, will become conservationists, as we have—but it will be too late.

up crusade may begin next Monday, the 23rd. There is no reason why every citizen should not comply with this request to improve the general appearance of the city. A little work daily until all trash, ashes and filth is removed from the premises, making the city's general appearance presentable and such a clean up will work wonders towards this end and make you happy to realizing what you have done. This is not all aside from the aspect of beauty. A clean city is healthful. There is much less chance of disease arising or spreading if cleanliness and not filth is the rule. Let each individual see that his premises are clean and in order and the health and beauty of the city will be greatly enhanced.

FUNERAL OF KING

with the gray walls of the edifice. The archbishops led the procession up the aisle, the prelate of the order of the Garter was followed by the king and other monarchs.

The opening sentences of the service were sung by the choir. When the great procession was seated, the choir chanted the ninetieth psalm, followed by sentences of the church of England liturgy. Seated in the choir were members of the Garter, the British order of chivalry. Near them were stationed the military knights of Windsor, wearing picturesque uniforms dating to mediaeval times. Opposite were gentlemen-at-arms, wearing silvered helmets, flowing plumes and scarlet coats.

Black was the keynote of the entire scene. Excepting the uniforms of soldiers and many of the royal representatives, hardly a speck of color was visible. In the throng of spectators from the aristocrat to the humblest workman every one was clad in the same sombre hue. Most of them had waited many hours before the procession began to file slowly from the main Westminster hall gate. But even from a spectacular point of view their long wait was well rewarded.

London has seen many picturesque pageants in the past but none that has even approached today's. The procession was made up as follows:

An officer of the headquarters staff.

Advance guard of the sovereigns' escort of Royal Life Guards, in brass helmets, white plumes, steel cuirasses, white buckskin breeches and huge Jack boots.

Knight Marshal's men in scarlet and purple uniforms.

Drummers of the foot guards.

Detachments of practically every military body in England with their bands. Among them were scarlet coated Grenadiers, Scots, Cold Stream and Irish guards with huge black bearskin headgear, helmeted infantry men, blue and gold artillerymen, blue and white and red lancers, blue and gold hussars, brass helmeted dragoons and dragoon guards cuirassed life guards, cuirassed horse guards, green clad rifle men, kilted highlanders and khaki-clad territorials.

Detachments from the royal navy, including the royal marine light infantry, royal marine infantry and companies of blue jackets from various ships.

Foreign militia detachments representing practically every European power.

Staff of the royal household, judges of the high courts in wigs and ermine trimmed scarlet robes members of the privy council in all kinds of uniforms, official and court dress.

Groups of foreign military attaches, gorgeously uniformed and plumed.

Headquarters staff of the British army, equally magnificent. Included in this group were four men who attracted more than usual attention, admiration and respectful scrutiny, for they wore scarlet uniforms, gold oak leaf epaulettes, broad blue sashes and var-colored plumed hats and carried the batons which proclaimed that the British field marshals—Earl Roberts or "Bobs"; Lord Kitchener, "The Iron Man"; Lord George White and Sir Charles Brown Low, a quartette of the most famous soldiers in the world.

Admirals Sir Arthur Wilson, Lord Fisher and Sir E. Y. Seymour.

Bands of the royal marine light infantry, massed guards, regiments, royal engineers and royal artillery.

The Duke of Norfolk, Earl Marshal of England.

White Staves—Lord Belper, the Duke of Buccleuch, and the Earl Waldegrave, Lord Chamberlain and Lord Carrington and Lord Stewart, Earl Beauchamp, each with six aides de camps.

The Coffin.

Gun carriage drawn by 100 sailors bearing the coffin with a bearer party on either side of non-commissioned officers of the guard and household cavalry. Outside these lines of honorary pallbearers, including several of the best known men in England, hedging both groups around, a detachment of relfurnishes the ideal remedy for those distressing blood disorders which are so prevalent at this season of the year. Curative elements are embodied in it which act quickly and positively on the blood and build magnificent health for sufferers. A trip to Hot Springs is an expensive matter; the Hot Springs Blood Remedy does as much good, in most cases, as the trip—and is surely much cheaper.

NYAL'S HOT SPRINGS BLOOD REMEDY

COMMENCEMENT

INVITATIONS WILL BE OUT IN A WEEK.

Program of Events Will Be Divided Into Two Parts.

Invitations to the commencement of the 1910 graduating class of the High school will be issued next week. The invitations have been selected, and are now in the hands of the engraver. The invitations will be distributed among the graduates next week, and they will mail them to their friends. The invitations are neat and among the most attractive ever issued. The class selected a simple design with "1910" engraved in gold figures at the top.

The class day exercises will be divided into two parts, and each division of the class will have charge of one part. The January division will celebrate the class day with an illustrated monologue. One member of the class will read letters from each member of the class with the prediction of five years in advance. The June division will have a class play, "The Superior Sex," for the second part. Rehearsals for the class play are being held now.

For the first time in many years the graduating class of the High school will be composed only of girls. It is the misfortune of the school that the boys do not continue in school until the completion of the course. The last classes of the High school have had a small number of boys, but the 1910 class will have the distinction of being the first class in many years to be composed only of girls.

WILL FARLEY IS

CHOSEN TO HEAD RETAIL COAL
 DEALERS SECOND TIME.

Probably Will Include Whole South
 in Scope of Organization.

MEETING ENDS AT MEMPHIS

Memphis, May 20.—Election of officers for the ensuing year, giving authority to the board of directors to enlarge the association by taking in more states, and discussion of plans to eliminate dead beat dealers, were the essential features of the first day's sessions of the Kentucky and Tennessee Retail Coal Merchants' association yesterday in the Business Men's club assembly room.

The big social feature was the banquet last night at the Hotel Gayoso, following the initiation of a large class into the Ko Kools, the secret order of the coal men.

The new officers chosen at the evening session are:

W. H. Farley, Paducah, Ky., president.

W. T. C. Berlin, Memphis, vice-president.

C. F. Roth, Knoxville, treasurer.

W. J. Prescott, Memphis, and George S. Crowning, Shelbyville, directors.

All were re-elected except Mr.
 Berlin and Mr. Roth.

A secretary will be chosen today to succeed George C. Tabb, who announced he could not serve another year. Louisville and Knoxville are being considered for the place of the next meeting.

It is probable that North and South Carolina, Georgia, Virginia, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas will be taken into the association, and the name of the organization changed to the Southern coal association. The board of directors was authorized to correspond with leaders in these states and to make arrangements for such a step if they think it desirable.

The first business session was held at 10 o'clock yesterday. Charles M.
 Bryan and Judge J. W. Greer welcomed the delegates while George C.
 Tabb, secretary, responded.

Arthur M. Hull, of Chicago, spoke on "The Cost of Selling Coal," and J. A. Webb, of Guthrie, Ky., read a paper on "What the Association Has Done for Me." Both were heartily applauded.

At the afternoon session a number of excellent talks for the good of the order followed the election.

A big class of candidates learned the mysteries of Ko Kool at Old
 "Yellows" hall, ceremonies beginning at 7:11 o'clock. The Ko Kools boast of having the only coal fed to in existence, and the candidates were willing to admit it was a live-y animal. A Memphis degree team had charge of the initiation.

Immediately following the initiation a banquet was served at the Hotel Gayoso. F. P. Wright, of Leveir, Ky., was the toastmaster, and informal talks were made by a number of the delegates.

The concluding business session of the convention was held this morning. This afternoon a boat ride was tendered the delegates, the cattona having been chartered for the occasion. The convention will end with a general good time tonight at the East End park, when the Memphis members will be the hosts.

FOUND SOMETHING TO CURE ECZEMA.

Trial Results in Complete Cure of Fifteen-Year Case in Two Years.

In a letter published in his lodge paper, Mr. F. O. Thompson, of Elizabeth, N. J., states that he was a sufferer from eczema for fifteen years,
 and one day spoke about his trouble
 to Dr. L. E. Todd. "Dr. Todd replied that he had something that would relieve it not permanently cure me," says Mr. Thompson, "but after treatment for so many years I had grave doubts. The doctor produced a box of poslam, and I promised to give it a faithful trial. I followed directions, and in two weeks' time find myself entirely cured. The fifty cents I paid for the box was the best investment I ever made."

Not alone eczema, but every surface skin disease is permanently eradicated by poslam, itching being stopped at once.

Write to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street,
 New York City, for a free trial package of poslam. With this sample alone complexions may be cleared and pimples banished from the face.

Gilbert's and R. W. Walker Co.'s, as well as all other good druggists everywhere, always carry poslam in the regular sizes at 50 cents and $2.

The formal consolidation of the American-German National bank with the City National bank will take place May 28. Until the new home at Fourth street and Broadway is completed, both banks will occupy the present building of the City National bank. It was intended to consolidate the two banks earlier, but the large amount of detail work required by the federal government delayed the amalgamation.

PADUKA BEER

Has Caught the Popular Fancy

IT HAS MADE GOOD BECAUSE IT IS MADE GOOD

WE are pleased, and we are grateful for the reception you Paducah folk accorded PADUKA BEER upon its introduction the past week. We spared no time or money to produce the best possible beer, and you have certainly stamped it with your approval.

PADUKA,—that's an odd name, you say? Well, we use it because a great volume of our business is done out of Paducah, and, after making this splendid beer, we decided to give it a name that would at once identify it with our good city.

Doctors recommend PADUKA BEER as a tonic. Try it once. You will quickly recognize its merit.

SAVE THE NATION

LEST THE NATION BE DE-BAUCHED IN TURN.

Governor Glenn Charges Home Missions to the Attention of Every Man.

Perhaps, never before was the subject of home missions laid so closely at the door of every individual in Paducah, as it was last night by former Governor R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina, who addressed an audience last night at the First Presbyterian church. He is carrying on a campaign under the auspices of the southern general assembly, and was accompanied here by the Rev. Mr. Boggs, state missionary secretary.

"Go yet into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature," was his text, and he began by advocating the strongest support of foreign missions, that here is where the churches secure their recruits and their ammunition.

He called attention to the fact that million immigrants a year come into this country and settle, principally in the great cities. Nearly half of them have not enough to support them for a week; hundreds of thousands can't read or write; hundreds of thousands do not believe in the same God we do. Of strange tongue, customs, manners, ways of thinking and religion, they are taken out of their native environs and placed in conditions that breed vice and anarchy and disease. Here is a work that calls for the serious attention of every man, who loves his country; for if these people are not lifted up by our church people, our people will inevitably be dragged down by them; our political institutions already debauched by the evil uses made of them, will

SALLOW COMPLEXION? OLIVE TABLETS.

Olive Tablets are the result of fifteen years of practice by Dr. F. M. Edwards of Portsmouth, Ohio, among his regular patients.

People whose blood was poisoned through inactive bowels found immediate relief in these tablets. The blood quickly cleared and the complexion became healthy in appearance. The olive oil in them is soothing and healing.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are sugar coated, pleasant to take, gentle yet firm, and always effective. The sale has grown to such enormous proportions, that all druggists sell them, 10c and 25c in neat vest pocket packages. Try Olive Tablets, then tell your friends about them.

The Olive Tablet Co., Portsmouth, Ohio.

be overthrown; our society, already too complacent toward certain insidiously vicious practices, wholly corrupted; our home life ruined and our boasted civilization made one with the stinking memory of Sodom and Gomorrah.

He told pitiful tales of destitution and deprivation of opportunity in the mountains of Kentucky, where sound bodies and minds, that should be strengthening the nation's chiefest resources, are allowed to grow to maturity and decay, wasted on the barren farms of the mountain sides. He described the condition of ministers, working for a pittance and not always given that, and he charged it to every hearer, that some day he must answer to his Maker for how he failed to give a cup of cold water to one of the least of these here in Kentucky.

CLARKSVILLE FUGITIVE CAPTURED IN PADUCAH.

Manuel Miller, colored, an alleged fugitive from justice, wanted at Clarksville, Tenn., on a larceny charge, was captured at 8 o'clock this morning by Patrolman W. C. Rickman on the northern outskirts of the city. Chief of Police Robinson, of Clarksville, will arrive this evening to convey Miller back. A telephone message was received yesterday by Chief Singery warning him to look out for Miller, who has a wife living here, Miller's home is in Clarksville. The specific charge he is wanted on is not known to the police here.
